

Why Choose Chester?

Visit Chester, with its magical mix of heritage, shopping and restaurants; this city is the perfect place to visit any time of year.

Located in the beautiful county of Cheshire in the North West of England (and with excellent car, coach and train transport links) Chester makes the ideal escape from the monotony of everyday life. Visit for a day, a relaxing weekend or even longer and experience what makes Chester possibly the number one tourist location in the United Kingdom.

Take a trip to Chester and be immersed in over 2,000 years of history. This ancient city is arguably the richest in Britain for archaeological and architectural treasures: preserved to this day from the time of the Roman occupation. Imagine walking the same streets as the warrior queen - Boudicca, or sitting in the famous Chester Roman amphitheatre where many gladiators fought and fell.

Accommodation in Chester comes in a variety of styles, from luxury five star hotels and city apartments to budget, yet beautiful bijou bed and breakfast guest houses. Whether you are looking for a quiet and relaxing romantic getaway, or a fun-filled family holiday near one of the city's main tourist attractions, you are sure to find the property to suit you. Independently minded travellers can snuggle up in one of the many superb self-catering cottages or city centre apartments, ideal to experience Chester and its outlying areas. For those on a tighter budget the city has plenty of accommodation options for you too.

An exciting mix of designer brands, independent gems and high street favourites make Chester a shopper's paradise. Sample this magnificent city's reputation as one of England's best shopping destinations; offering a multitude of stores - yet all relatively compact and easy to find. As you explore, soak up the awe-inspiring architecture, not least the Roman splendour of Eastgate and the quaint cobbled streets which weave through this shopping paradise. Wander through the bustling indoor and outdoor markets, brimming with mouth-watering fresh produce, or peruse the variety of boutiques and independent shops, which boast a long and proud history.

With an abundance of restaurants, pubs and cafes, Chester attracts food lovers from all over the globe. Whether it is a home-baked pie in a cosy country pub or a Michelin-starred dish at an award-winning restaurant, the range of quality venues serving fresh local produce is many and varied in Chester. As you meander through the cobbled streets, stop by one of the many tea rooms and cafes for freshly brewed coffee and a slice of homemade cake or sample some real ale in one of the many pubs. You are sure to find something to suit your palate and your pocket in Chester.

A visit to Chester would not be complete without a trip to its famous zoo. Chester zoo is the United Kingdom's number one tourist spot and home to over 15,000 wild and wonderful animals: including some of the most exotic and endangered in the world. From lions and tigers to penguins and meerkats, there is a different animal waiting to be discovered around every corner!

So, book your ticket, pack your bag and discover Chester - the jewel in the English crown.

