

Knowledge Organiser – The British Isles and Tanzania

What will we be learning?

- The location of the four countries in the UK
- The four capitals and surrounding seas.
- Location of Tanzania
- Human and physical features of the UK and Tanzania
- Human and physical features of Worcester and Morogoro
- Sharing our understanding of the UK and Tanzania.

Key facts

The countries of the United Kingdom: England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.

The four capital cities:

London (England), Edinburgh (Scotland), Cardiff (Wales) and Belfast (Northern Ireland).

Tanzania is located in Eastern Africa.

Tanzania is one of 54 countries in Africa

Glossary

capital city: the city where a country's government is, such as London or Edinburgh country: an area of land that has its own government, such as the UK or France

feature: something you would find in a place that is usually there (such as a hill or a house)

Key knowledge

The United Kingdom is part of the continent of Europe.

It is made up of four countries, which all have their own capital city.

England's capital city is London.

Each country has its own flag. The United Kingdom also has a flag, which is sometimes called the Union Jack.

The United Kingdom is an island: it is surrounded by water.

The UK and Tanzania have human and physical features. Human features are made by people and physical features are made by nature.

Tanzania is located in Africa.

Tanzania has 8 other countries surrounding it and has an Indian Ocean coastline.

The capital city of Tanzania is Dodoma.

Place names	Geographical terms and processes	Locational terms
Europe Irish Sea, Atlantic Ocean North Sea Norton Littleworth Worcester Africa Tanzania Morogoro Dodoma Indian Ocean	city country river sea town village	northern eastern southern western

