Dear Parents,

Where is the most extreme place that your child has ever read a book? Whether it is up a tree, on top of a mountain or standing on their head, we want your photos! Your challenge is to take a picture of your child reading somewhere extreme and send it in to school by Friday 9th September.

We are hoping to make an exciting 'Extreme Reading' display in the school library. To help us with the display please bring in a photo or email your pictures to the school office. The prize will be a book signed by it's famous author!

We are really looking forward to seeing who in school has such a passion for reading that they have to do it anywhere and everywhere!

Please remember to keep safe with your photo opportunities.

Kind regards

Mrs S Marshall
